KOL NIDREI

Sunday, September 20

7:30 pm – "Ctrl+Z: A Repair Workshop"

with Sarah & Rabbi Menachem Lehrfield

We don't always show up in relationships the way that we would like. What separates strong relationships from fragile ones isn't avoiding these moments. It's what comes next.

Join Sarah and Rabbi Menachem Lehrfield for an honest, practical workshop on the art of repair: how to reconnect after conflict, own your part without drowning in shame, and rebuild trust with the people who matter most. Whether it's your spouse, your kids, a close friend, or coworker, repair is the skill that keeps connection possible.

You don't have to get it right the first time. You just have to know how to come back.

See Aish Services page for times of Kol Nidrei, sermons and other services.
